

Induction into Court Interpreting

Specialist 'post-qualified' training for MRSLIs

Course Tutor: Byron Campbell, MRSLI

Byron, previously described by candidates as "an excellent teacher", has over 20 years experience working as an interpreter within the legal domain. He has furthermore provided Expert Witness services including statements, reports and evidence for a range of cases for the Court service.

This two-day training course takes the interpreter through the range of theoretical, practical, logistical, linguistic, protocol and dilemma issues in a clear chronological order.

Whether you are an interpreter with some or no court experience, this comprehensive and thought-provoking programme is aimed at giving you the essential knowledge and behaviour to engender confident and professional working practices in the courtroom.

The course will be held at our premises in Alvechurch, Birmingham on the following days:-

Monday 12th and Tuesday 13th March 2012

Times: 10:00-17:00

Course fee: £115.00 (+ VAT), incl. buffet lunch
Course fees held from 2011!
